CINCPAC INSTRUCTION 3810.5

Subj: PACOM Intelligence Resource Review Group (PIRRG)

1. Purpose. To assign responsibilities, set forth administrative procedures, and provide general instructions for the PIRRG.

2. Background

a. DOD, Intelligence Community Staff, and Congressional requirements for accountability for military intelligence resources in Program III and other force programs make coordination of such issues essential at theater level. There is a need for a theater management mechanism which will afford Senior Theater Intelligence Officers PACOM-wide visibility over Planning, Programming, and Budgeting System (PPBS) actions relating to intelligence resources applicable to the PACOM mission.

b. The PIRRG functioning as a subordinate element of the joint PACOM Intelligence Board (PIB) is designed to accomplish this function.

3. General

a. The PIRRG is charged with responsibility for assisting the PIB by acquisition and display of cross-program, cross-discipline PPBS information related to intelligence activities potentially applicable to the PACOM mission.

b. Neither the PIRRG nor its parent organization, the PIB, will be responsible for PPBS functions. These have been, and will remain, the responsibilities of the military services and appropriate agencies. The role of the PIRRG is confined to the acquisition and display of PPBS information concerning manpower, equipments, contractual support, facility construction, and similar functions related to military intelligence. The purpose of such displays will be to ensure that resource requirements are complementary to the theater intelligence structure and objectives.

c. It is envisioned that the availability of such data will enable the members of the Board as the Senior Intelligence Officers of the Component Services to interface constructively with the PPBS process in a supportive role, or to reduce or eliminate any counterproductive efforts through collaboration with theater commands and national agencies.

4. Responsibilities

a. Hq CINCPAC J22 (Management Division) will:

(1) Chair the PIRRG with responsibilities for preparation of agendas, convening the PIRRG, accumulating data for presentation to the PIB, and for reporting on PIRRG activities to the PIB.

(2) Provide secretarial support to the PIRRG.

b. Theater Service Component Commanders will:

(1) Provide representation to the PIRRG as principal members to meet on the call of the chair.

(2) Provide such information relating to PPBS actions of their commands as required to meet PIB visibility requirements.

c. Other members of the PACOM Intelligence Community and representatives of agencies assigned or attached to the CINCPAC staff are encouraged to attend PIRRG meetings as observers and to provide such information deemed essential by the PIB in pursuit of its management goals.
